HAILEY MAHY IS THE NEW 2019 JUNIOR MINISTER OF TOURISM

The Ursuline Convent walked away with bragging rights as Hailey Mahy was announced and declared the 2019 Junior Minister of Tourism of Barbados with the informative presentation titled, “Making Excellence a Habit in Caribbean Tourism.”

This year, six schools vied for the prestigious title at the annually recognized Barbados Tourism Youth Congress. Those students were: Ashanti Jaunai from The Alexandra School, Soraya Headley representing the Deighton Griffith School, Jermessa Khan from the Ellerslie School, Hannah Sealey from the St. Michael School, Noah Fagan the lone male student hailing from The Lester Vaughan School and Modena Byer-Fraser and Hailey Mahy from The Ursuline Convent.

They presented to the Minister of Tourism and International Transport, Hon. Kerrie Symmonds, Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Tourism and International Transport, Mrs. Donna Cadogan, tourism partners, the judging panel, students, teachers, family and friends at the Sandals Royal Barbados. Each student presented on one of the topics, “Towards Smart Travel Experiences within the Caribbean Region”, “Equipping our Youth to Thrive in a Changing Tourism Environment”, and “Making Excellence a Habit in Caribbean Tourism”.

The competition then added a suspense flare as the students were allocated one minute to present on the Mystery Question – “As Junior Minister of Tourism, recommend (2) ways in which we can encourage community tourism across our island.” Each student made the effort to answer this question and all performed well under pressure. Second place awardee, Ms. Jermessa Khan suggested that, “One way we can help encourage community tourism is to educate the upcoming generation about the current product and activities on the island. Make everyone feel inclusive; make them feel like tourism is ours - I am tourism, you are tourism, we are tourism. This is what needs to be enforced.” Third place was given to Ms. Modena Byer-Fraser from The Ursuline Convent.

Hailey Mahy walked away ecstatic as she will now represent Barbados at the Caribbean Tourism Organization’s (CTO) regional annual Youth Congress in October. This competition takes a similar format where students between the ages of 14 and 17 discuss tourism related issues in a simulated Board Meeting.
